TEACHER ANSWER SHEET

a) What does a freedom ticket allow you to do?

Have unlimited entry to Blackgang Chine and Robin Hill for a 7-day period.

b) Why would you find it difficult to see dormice at Robin Hill?

They are nocturnal (and therefore only come out at night).

c) Explain how trees support woodland life.

The trees provide food, support and shelter, allowing woodland life to thrive on and below their leafy bows.

d) "The name 'Robin Hill' was inspired by the character of Robin Hood." Find evidence that

e) What suggests that the Colosseum was a very impressive?

People with medical conditions are advised not to ride. Safety restraints are employed.

f) Why do you think that Anglo Saxons allowed Combeley Roman Villa to fall derelict?

It wasn't part of their heritage so they probably weren't concerned with keeping Roman buildings in-tact as they would probably have developed their own systems and dwellings.

g) Find out which Chinese symbol you are. Give reasons why this is a good reflection of your character. Give reasons why it isn't.

h) When will the next Year of the Rat be?

2020.

i) Why are there musical notes on the tree sculpture?

They represent the park's modern musical links with the Festival.

j) Record some interesting information about 'The Dukes of Little Egypt' to present back at school.

Any information from 'The Dukes of Little Egypt board.
