

Robin Hill Guide Book Challenge!

Do you have the skills to create the perfect Robin Hill guide book for travellers?

Student Introduction

- ▶ Pen your way to being published!
- ▶ Can you inject an excitement and enthusiasm into your writing? Can you make a destination come alive for your reader? Are your skills of description good enough to persuade someone to want to experience an activity?

Teaching resources by Education Destination Ltd.

Curriculum relevant materials supporting school trips to the Isle of Wight

Book today with Education Destination and get full access to this and hundreds more quality resources

www.edudest.uk

INDIVIDUALLY:

TASK

- » You are going to write a page (or two) for this guide book on Robin Hill.
- » The first thing that you need to do is to investigate examples of tour guides so that you can immerse yourself in the descriptive power of words.
- » Your page will also need to be informative as you need to show your audience how much fun they can have in an action-packed day!
- » Remember – the audience for your work is KEY. You have to appeal to the whole family here: whilst mum and dad want their kids to have fun, there needs to be a section for them too!
- » It is essential that you plan your page(s) carefully:
 - ✓ Which activities will you emphasise?
 - ✓ Which images will you use?
 - ✓ How will you lay out your page?
 - ✓ Can you use some of the photos which you took on your visit?
 - ✓ Don't forget to use a range of presentational features: bullet points, paragraphs, headings, a range of font types and sizes.....

PLAN

Handwriting practice lines consisting of five horizontal lines.

CONSIDER:

- Superlatives
- Persuasive / descriptive language
- Vocabulary fit for audience
- Which activities / what to say about them (include child and adult)
- Anecdotes and experiences to emphasise the fun!
- Layout (bullet points, paragraphs, headings)
- Photographs

Teaching resources by Education Destination Ltd.
 Curriculum relevant materials supporting school trips to the Isle of Wight
 Book today with Education Destination and get full access to this and hundreds more quality resources
www.edudest.uk

Large area of handwriting practice lines consisting of ten horizontal lines.

