

TEACHER NOTES

English: Writing

Writing for Purpose & Audience

Contextual Summary

This is a post-visit English writing resource that engages students with their visit to Robin Hill Country Park. The resource task enables them to practise their crafting skills.

Students are asked to identify literary features in a similar text and then to write to inform in an engaging way, using their experiences at Robin Hill as their stimulus material.

The task is designed to appeal to students in key stage 4.

Task Implementation

This is a post-visit task. This task can be introduced before the visit to Robin Hill Country Park so that students are aware of the need to focus on their experience, taking note of the environment and forming ideas for possible creative responses, with particular reference to groups of people who would enjoy.

The task can be integrated into English lessons at any stage throughout the academic year as a revision tool or for writing practice. It is anticipated that students will have an enriched experience as they will be reflecting on their school visit activities in a creative way, and this will reinforce how English, and writing in particular, can be a valuable expressive tool.

To give their writing an authentic feel, pupils will use ICT to produce their final outcome.
